

OLGA KHOZIAINOVA

The Russian pianist Olga Khoziainova was born in Yalta, where she started at the age of six with piano lessons. At the age of 10 she continued her study at the Special Music School for young talent in Kiev. When she was 19 she went to study in Moscow with Professor Maria Grinberg and accordingly with Arcadi Sevidov. After graduating in 1982, Olga Khoziainova joined the National Theatre in Moscow as a pianist. At the same time she worked as a soloist and a concertmaster with the Moscow Union of Music Ensembles.

In 1993 Olga Khoziainova started working with the Finnish National Ballet. She was then also working as a guest pianist at ABT in New York and The Hamburg Ballet. In 1998 Olga Khoziainova was invited to join The National Ballet as a first pianist. Since then she works for the HNB and has her residence in Amsterdam.

Besides her work with various ballet companies, Olga Khoziainova gives regularly performances as a concert pianist.

Today, in the world of ballet, Olga Khoziainova is one of the most in demand performing pianists. She went on tour to Moscow, St Petersburg, Shang-Hai, Beijing, London, Paris and other cities in Europe. Olga Khoziainova performed on festivals in Edinburgh and Houston.